

At the CHEAP-NOTED COVENT-GARDEN PROVISION WARE-
HOUSE, No. 31, JAMES-STREET,

IS this Day and To-morrow felling off Positively without Reserve, the following large Stock: Two Hundred Sides of the finest Wiltshire Bacon that ever came to Town, all Young and Warranted, well dry'd, at the uncommon low Price of Five Pence per Pound. This is without Apology known to be the best Bacon in the Kingdom, and at a Price that has never yet been offered to the Public. About Three or Four Hundred Firkins of all Sorts of Butters, which will be sold as follows: Best Dublin and Rou Cork, from Five to Sixpence per Pound. Best York and Suffolk from Sixpence Halfpenny to Sevenpence per Pound. Best Cambridge at Eightpence per Pound. Fresh Butter and Eggs. Twenty Tons of fine old rich Cheshire Cheese, Threepence Farthing by the Hundred; with the best fat Toasting Gloucester at the same Price. Single Cheeses at Threepence Halfpenny, and the very best rich old Double Gloucester and Northwiltshire cut at Fourpence; Cheeses that will weigh a Hundred each; of fine Flavour and full of Blue Mould; Rich, and of the best Quality, always sold at Fivepence and Sixpence per Pound, will be sold at Fourpence. Hams, and fine Pickled Pork in Proportion. A Trial will prove this to be the Cheapest and Best Ware-house in London.

The above will surely be worth the Attention of Chandler-shops, Families, Public-houses, and Taverns, but particularly by the Country People who comes to this Market, to whom the Proprietor is greatly indebted for past Favours. All Goods of any Consequence sent hence free of Expence; but nothing till paid for, as no Day-book is kept.

N. B. The above Goods will continue on Sale till all is Sold.

(1781 - see back)